The changing face of our game

THIS CERTAINLY isn't a year for the faint hearted – and what a fortnight in South Melbourne's history.

Firstly, there was the memorable opening of our new Bob Jane Stadium which has seen close on 20,000 fans pack in for just three games; then a quick one-two of victories; and add to that the transfer speculation of Joe Bacak, Alek Kuzmanovic's suspension, Trimmers' injury and I honestly don't know if I'll last it out until the end of the season.

Oh, and the Johnnie Walker Cup draw was made and, surprise, surprise, we are drawn against Melbourne Knights.

The home clash with Newcastle also marked the end of the first phase of the season, a season which has surely been the most eventful on record.

We have had it all so far; great goals, top football, constant changes at the top of the league – and more.

So far we have seen UTS Olympic, Morwell Falcons and Marconi all top the table with another five clubs rarely more than one win away from top spot.

But the real shape may not start to appear until after the festive games are over. By then we will have played seventeen rounds and surely the leaders will start to break away from the pack by then.

But with another sixteen games still to be played after the January Cup break this is shaping up to be some competition.

If the so-called 'player drain' has affected our competition then it really isn't evident from the sidelines.

There has been some great play this season which is great news for the fans.

And we are also starting to see the return from 'exile' of our top players, the big names who went to Europe in the 80s to seek their fame and fortune.

Undoubtedly the biggest to return to date is Frankie Farina who after a glittering European career is now wowing them up at Brisbane.

But an equally big name on the local scene is that of Alan Davidson who is back for a guest period at Bob Jane Stadium.

And the good news is that there are more to follow.

The days of the return of the Arnolds and Slaters aren't that far off.

That can only add to the excitement of a competition which has already experienced a fantastic post-World Cup 25% increase in attendances.

TONIGHT we play our third home game in a row and if we can keep up the 100% record of late then we are back on target for a Top Six place going into 1996.

And that would certainly be a great way to start a new era, an era in which good football is becoming the standard.

When Blue dreams come true

PHOTOGRAPHS:

West Adelaide were intent on spoiling the party after the opening ceremony of our new Bob Jane Stadium – and they did ...

But not before the team got the chance to jump through the Bob Jane Field of Dreams banner

IT REALLY IS the kind of stuff they write about in comics or football adventure yarns. You know the one where the team is down and out but slowly they start to come back to form – and then at the last moment

Last season we got within a whisker of the play-offs after a horror start, really the kind of stuff that legends are made of.

But South Melbourne is no stranger to horror starts and over the last few seasons it seems as if everything is set to conspire against us.

This season it has been the move to a new home ground; last season it was moving out of our hallowed Middle Park; and then the year before it was a fixture pile-up caused by games postponed because of our Socceroo player commitments.

Frank Arok calls the club "Gypsies" in his own inimitable way, and he has hit the nail on the head.

But while everyone was writing the side off he seemed to hold out for something better – and he got it.

Those two wins in a row are enough to help the club turn the corner and now with a run of home fixtures maybe the balance will be re-addressed.

Arok calls the club's fans "unbelievable" and he is right – so in this issue of In Blue & White we thought that we could capture some of the more memorable moments of this season and some of the faces in the crowd – and thanks for your fantastic support over the years.

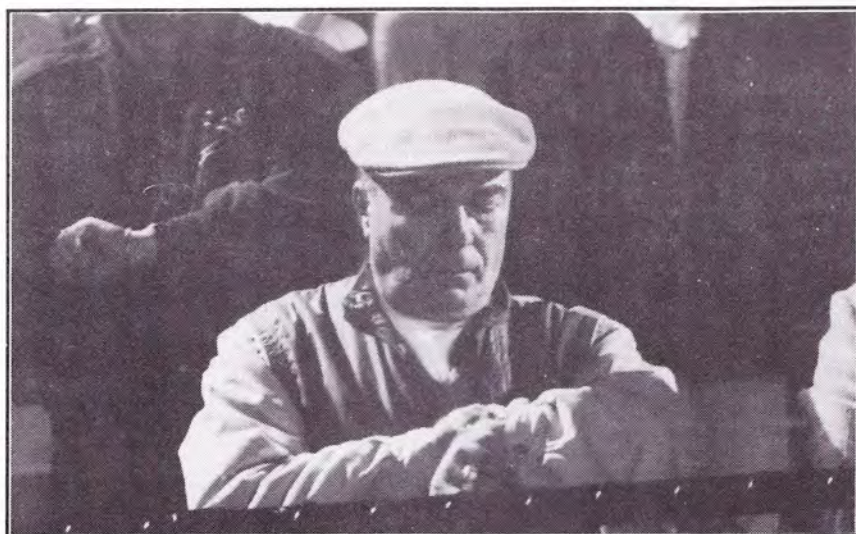

THERE is plenty of glamour in the Ericsson Cup – and not just on the field

..... TIME IS ticking away but maybe the fans have forgotten about Ivan Kelic

Ivan Kelic has had his share of critics this season but hit back in superb style with two goals in two games – including this last minute match winner against Melbourne Knights which left Frank Juric beaten all ends up. and the party is just beginning.

CURRENT FORM: Two in a row for the mighty Blues but Morwell are always something of a surprise with their 'Brazilian' style of defence. If Alan Davidson & Co can hold them in the first half then put your ten bob on Ivan Kelic to do the business. Prediction: The Blues 1-0.

Knights keeper Frank Juric goes down as Paul Trimboli watches on. But the South Melbourne champion was soon substituted himself as a precautionary measure.

Trimmers stars on Boots & Balls

WHEN PAUL Trimboli came off in the second half against Melbourne Knights the groans and cries went up in the crowd.

The thought of losing the team's influential playmaker with injury is a daunting one, especially at a time when it really is all hands to the pumps.

"It was more of a pre-caution," explains the silky midfielder.

"I didn't play against Newcastle so that I wouldn't aggravate the injury I am carrying - Frank wanted me right for the Knights game.

"But it wasn't right against the Knights either so I came off so as to avoid any risk of further damage."

But those sensible precautions should see Trimboli available throughout the hectic festive schedule.

Earlier this week Paul was a guest on Boots & Balls, the Canberra-produced Ericsson Cup radio programme, and he spoke candidly about South Melbourne's season to date.

"The wins last week definitely helped us," he admitted.

"At times we weren't playing too bad but when you win your confidence does grow, there isn't any doubt about it.

"We've been playing some not bad football, but you still need to get the results."

That double win situation sees the club pick up six points, enough to haul it off the bottom and now poised within a whisker of a Top Six spot.

But is another Championship Play-Off just a dream for the club?

"Not really," says Trimboli.

"There is still a long way to go this season and if we can get some sort of consistency going then there is no reason why South Melbourne can't make the Top Six - again.

"We've brought in a lot of young players this season and that takes time to settle down.

"But I think that we are showing the signs of starting to gel and if we can keep that going then we will be OK."
